Overview

The buildings and grounds (the facilities) of UUCR shall be used primarily to serve the needs of the church and of its members. When portions of our church facilities are not being used for congregant activities, they may be leased or rented to outside organizations, following the terms established in this policy document and our rental agreements. The Church Administrator, will ensure UUCR rents only to individuals or groups whose philosophies and activities are aligned with the principles of Unitarian Universalism.

Rental Agreements

When renting UUCR facilities, all individuals and groups, including congregation members and friends, are required to sign UUCR rental agreements, leave deposits, and agree to the regulations governing use of church space. UUCR shall use two types of agreements to cover its rental activities: (1) Building Use Contract – Rental Agreement (Short-Term Rentals), and (2) Long-Term Lease Agreement.

Rental Program Responsibilities

The Church Administrator is responsible for day-to-day rental activities and negotiates and signs rental agreements on behalf of the church and in accordance with the terms of this policy. The Church Administrator consults with other church groups as appropriate, on available rental space.

Rental Policy Administration

1. The Regulations governing use of church facilities by renters are listed in the UUCR Regulations Attached to Rental Agreements, and added as an addendum to the short term rental agreement. These regulations cover all aspects of renter conduct and ensure the safety of participants, orderly behavior, and the protection of church property.
2. The Church Administrator shall refuse any rental request that is judged to be problematic or not in the best interests of the church. For events that could potentially damage church property, a rental agreement shall not be signed without the renter agreeing to take appropriate steps to protect church property.

2. The Church Administrator shall refuse any rental request that is judged to be problematic or not in the best interests of the church. For events that could potentially damage church property, a rental agreement shall not be signed without the renter agreeing to take appropriate steps to protect church property.

3. As church programs grow and additional space is needed, the church may displace renters by invoking the termination clause in the lease agreements.
4. The church reserves the right to appoint Rental Attendant(s), to open and lock doors, operate the HVAC and sound systems, oversee proper use of church property, and assure proper clean-up of the rented space. A Rental Attendant is typically required for large events such as weddings, receptions, and other celebratory occasions where food and drink are served. Attendants shall be trained on their duties and the use of church systems.
5. UUCR's long term lease agreements shall contain language that permits the congregation to use its facilities (in place of the renter) under situations of significant need; for example, memorial services.
6. The church strongly discourages the storage of any equipment or other materials on its premises by outside groups renting space. Any arrangements by the church to store renter possessions must be included in the rental agreement.
7. Contributing members and friends qualify for special rental rates. Contributing members/friends are those who have attended UUCR for more than one year and have contributed through pledging to the UUCR operating fund.
8. The Church Administrator may adjust rates and renter requirements as appropriate, in consultation with the Rental Committee.* The Church Administrator is authorized to negotiate rentals other than the nursery school leases, including making adjustments to rental rates, if necessary to secure a desirable rental.
9. The Board approves the nursery school leases, which are negotiated by the Rental Committee* and Church Administrator in consultation with the Finance Committee and submitted to the Board for approval. The Church Administrator is authorized to modify leases with the nursery schools, including adjusting rental rates, after consultation with the Rental Committee and approval by the Board.

*If the Rental Committee isn't operational, the Finance Committee fulfills this role. Otherwise, the Finance Committee will be engaged through the Board Treasurer.

Rental Rates

The rental rates for use of church facilities are shown on the UUCR website. Periodically, the Church Administrator will review the rates and make adjustments, as appropriate.

Discounts to the rental rates are available for special groups as described below. Certain charges are never discounted, including: the security deposit, custodian fees, and/or Rental Attendant fees. All rentals provide the renter with a minimum of a 3-hour time period for their use of the rented facilities.

1. Congregation Sponsored Events

There is no rental fee for UUCR sponsored events; for example: committee functions, UU District related functions, and Board approved functions co-sponsored by UUCR and an outside organization.
